

SIDES FOR D9-1ED

SCENE 2 DARK HAWK COCKPIT SHIP INT.

Inside we can see an un-masked AVRIEL and D9-1ED. They are both sitting at separate control panels fidgeting with the keys in front of them. D(-1ED looks over to AVRIEL who continues to work.

D9-1ED

You haven't said much since we left.

AVRIEL

What's to say D9? We did what we had to.

D9-1ED

I thought our mission was to kill a Jedi, to gain his power.

AVRIEL

(Interrupts)

I know what the mission is. But I have a different plan.

D9-1ED

What is your obsession with GENERAL RENEGARD.

AVRIEL

It's not her I want. It's what she has. Loris thinks I'm not strong enough to capture her. But I am. I don't need to kill the Jedi.

D9-1ED

You seem hesitant...? Does this mission concern you master?
Are you afraid to confront your former master?

AVRIEL

I fear no enemy. If I have to kill VODIAN I will.

D9-1ED

And once you do happen to capture the general, what do you think LORIS intentions will be?

AVRIEL

What do you mean?

D9-1ED

Once LORIS has what he wants, what do you think he'll do with us? This is the same man who won't let you bring a light saber in the same room as him. He considers you a threat.

AVRIEL

He doesn't consider me a threat D9. It's something you wouldn't understand. Without LORIS' teachings I'd be a nobody, stuck on some farm working for the Jedi. As a a useless tool. If LORIS dies, I lose everything too. I'm nothing without him.

D9-1ED

That's not true master. You have me! Plus, I have thought out every logical outcome, and none come out in our favor, master. I can assure you.

AVRIEL

Listen buddy, sometimes you just have to make the right decisions. I have it under control. Trust me.

D9-1ED

I trust you, AVRIEL. I do.

AVRIEL gives D9-1ED a confident nod of assurance, and they both get back to work.
